About CIF

Chittima International Foundation (CIF), a centre for Sanskrit Research and Indology, established by Puja Gurudev Swami Chittimaya in 1989, located at the maternal birth home of the great saint, savant and philosopher Adi Savarni is
- the hub of Indological research
- and Sanskrit language based research
- a cross-cultural forum for knowledge dissemination
- the academic front of the Chittima Mission worldwide

The Vision of CIF

- To keep the lamp of knowledge ever lit through research
- To revitalize the Indian philosophical knowledge-tradition and disseminate it
- To unravel India’s hidden and lost knowledge-traditions by extensive research in Sanskrit and Indology.

Project CIF: An Appeal

CIF is located in Erakulam District, Puja Gurudev Swami Chittimaya’s birthplace. This was the last of the two last projects undertaken by Puja Gurudev during His lifetime. The year 2015-2016 marks the birth centenary of Puja Gurudev. Elaborate construction projects have been planned for enhancing the facilities at CIF. The proposed enhancements include: a residential complex for 490 people, a fully equipped convention hall to seat 750 persons, upgraded staff quarters, additional kitchen and dining facilities, enhanced communications infrastructure to enable global transmission of lectures and classes, and a spacious, well laid out and classified book center for all publications, audios and videos of the Chittima Mission.

The 12th Century Celebration, Project CIF will be dedicated to the kith and kin of Puja Gurudev by Puja Gurudev Swami Teekaramananda, Head of the Chittima Mission Worldwide. We invite you to donate generously for Project CIF. The estimated project cost is INR 20 crores or approx USD 4 million.
